

SCOOTER'S GOOD BOOK

Scooter was a very nice dog. She was the oldest dog in her family. She had two younger sisters. They drove Scooter crazy every day. She tried her best to get along with them, and not to argue over toys. It was very hard. They wanted to argue every day. Their mom did not like this. She got angry when Scooter's sisters argued over toys.

One day Scooter went with her mom to the store. Her sisters did not go. They were in trouble for arguing with each other. Scooter smiled happily when she jumped in the car. It was fun to go with her mom to the store. She sat very still while her mom put on her seat belt. Scooter looked out of the window and smiled at her sisters as her mom backed out of the drive way.

Mom and Scooter went in the store. Scooter was very nice and polite to the people in the store. Scooter's mom was very proud of her.

It was time to go home. They got back in the car and headed for home. Scooter's mom leaned over and gave Scooter a big hug and a book about dogs. Scooter was very happy with her gift. She went straight in the house and jumped on the sofa and read all afternoon. She did not even hear her sisters fussing that they did not get a new book. She was lost in her good book and her memories of a great day.
